

BLS International Commences Visa Operations for Cyprus in Kazakhstan

- Growing tourism demand drives enhanced visa facilitation for Cyprus-bound travellers
- Enhanced accessibility supported by competitive and cost-effective service pricing

New Delhi, 11 March 2026: BLS International, a leading global AI & tech-enabled services partner for governments and citizens, has commenced Cyprus visa operations in Kazakhstan, reinforcing its commitment to delivering accessible and efficient visa facilitation services to applicants. The company continues to offer these services at highly competitive and cost-effective service fees, ensuring a value-driven experience.

The Cyprus Visa Application Centres (VACs) facilitate Short-Term visas for travel purposes, including Tourism, Business, Visiting Family & Friends, and Sports. Tourism remains the predominant visa category, underscoring Cyprus' strong appeal as a preferred Mediterranean travel destination among applicants from Kazakhstan.

Designed to provide a seamless submission experience, the visa application centres feature dedicated, professionally managed facilities within a secure environment. Well-connected via metro and other public transport options, the VACs are conveniently accessible to applicants.

In addition, applicants can benefit from a comprehensive suite of optional Premium Services, consistent across locations. These include SMS notifications, courier return services, Prime Time appointments, form-filling assistance, photography, photocopying and printing services, and Premium Lounge facilities for enhanced comfort.

Mr Murzban Dadiburjor, Regional Head, Russia & CIS, BLS International, said, “The commencement of Cyprus visa operations in Kazakhstan reflects the sustained demand for travel to Cyprus, particularly for tourism. This development represents a significant step in strengthening our regional footprint within the CIS. As travel flows continue to grow, we remain focused on scaling our operational capabilities and deepening our presence in key markets to support governments and travellers effectively.”

BLS International continues to focus on delivering an efficient, transparent, and applicant-friendly submission process in accordance with official guidelines.
