

BLS International Strengthens Focus in Latin America, Elevating Customer Excellence in Visa Services

New Delhi, October 14, 2025: BLS International, a trusted global tech-enabled visa, consular, and citizen services partner for governments and citizens worldwide, has strengthened its presence in Latin America with the inauguration of a new Visa Application Centre in Argentina. The company has also moved to a larger Visa Application Centre in Ecuador and taken over operations in Bolivia, transitioning from a partner-run model to a fully self-managed operation. These strategic moves enable BLS International to enhance service delivery, streamline processes, and provide a consistently superior and secure experience for customers across the region.

The newly inaugurated Visa Application Centre in Argentina, along with the upgraded centre in Ecuador and the directly managed centre in Bolivia, are all designed to provide a seamless and efficient experience for visa applicants. These facilities integrate AI-driven systems, advanced biometric technology, and customer-focused service features, ensuring higher capacity, enhanced comfort, and consistent quality of service in line with BLS International's global standards.

Mr. Shikhar Aggarwal, Joint Managing Director at BLS International, said, “Our expansion in Latin America highlights our strengthened focus on the region and our commitment to delivering unmatched customer excellence. By leveraging AI, advanced biometrics, and tailored solutions, we aim to make the visa experience faster, more secure, and effortless—bringing global best practices to the region and setting new benchmarks for service that truly puts the customer first.”

With this expansion, BLS International continues to reinforce its position as a global leader in visa and consular services, advancing its vision to make international mobility smoother, more secure, and more accessible through technology and trust.
