

BLS International Distributes Blankets to 1000 People under CSR Initiative

New Delhi India, 30 January'25: As part of its ongoing commitment to corporate social responsibility, BLS International Services Limited distributed blankets to approximately 1000 people across 20 gram panchayats in Tehsil Swayajpur, Hardoi district. This initiative aims to support vulnerable communities in the region, which faces recurring floods due to its proximity to the Ganga, Ramganga, and Garra rivers.

The blanket distribution drive was conducted in the presence of Swajpur MLA Madhavendra Pratap Singh, who engaged with the local community and personally distributed blankets to those in need. The event was also attended by regional block chief Anil Singh Rajput, district representative Jagannath Rajput, divisional president Ajay Singh Rajput, head union president Alok Singh, and other regional dignitaries.

Speaking on the occasion, community leaders and local representatives appreciated BLS International's efforts to provide relief to underprivileged sections of society. This initiative is a testament to the company's dedication to social welfare and its commitment to making a meaningful impact in rural communities.

BLS International continues to stay focused on its mission to contribute to social and economic development through a range of CSR programs that provide support to the needy.
