

Consulate General of the Republic of Belarus in Mumbai Entrusts BLS International to Formally Commence Visa Operations in Mumbai, India

Growing tourism demand drives enhanced visa facilitation for Belarus-bound travellers

New Delhi, 4 May 2026: BLS International, a leading global AI & tech-enabled services partner for governments and citizens, has commenced Belarus visa operations in Mumbai, India, reinforcing its commitment to delivering accessible and efficient visa facilitation services to applicants.

The Belarus Visa Application Centre (VAC) facilitates visas for all categories, including travel purposes such as Transit, Tourism, Business, Study, Private, and Participation in cultural, educational, sports, and scientific events.

Designed to provide a seamless submission experience, the visa application centre features dedicated, professionally managed facilities within a secure environment. With well-connected public transport options, the VAC is conveniently accessible to applicants.

Shikhar Aggarwal, Joint Managing Director of BLS International, said, “India's outbound travel market is growing at an extraordinary pace, and our responsibility as a global visa facilitation leader is to ensure that every aspiring traveller has access to a seamless, dignified, and efficient visa experience. The commencement of Belarus visa operations in Mumbai is a reflection of that commitment — bringing a new destination within closer reach of Indian travellers while upholding the highest standards of service delivery. At BLS International, we don't just process visas; we open doors to the world.”

BLS International continues to focus on delivering an efficient, transparent, and applicant-friendly submission process in accordance with official guidelines.
