

Publication: Economic Times

Date: 28/12/2017

Edition: Online

Headline: A visit to Spain will leave you spoilt for choice. Here's how to make the most of it

Link: <https://economictimes.indiatimes.com/magazines/panache/a-visit-to-spain-will-leave-you-spoilt-for-choice-heres-how-to-make-the-most-of-it/articleshow/62281691.cms>

The screenshot shows the top portion of a web article. At the top left is the 'THE ECONOMIC TIMES' logo and the 'Panache' magazine title. Below this is a navigation bar with links for Home, Magazines, Panache, ET Wealth, Brand Equity, Corporate Dossier, ET Magazine, and Travel. A secondary navigation bar lists various categories like Tech and Gadgets, World, Cars & Bikes, Lifestyle, Food & Drinks, Health, People, Entertainment, Books, City Life, Humour, and Between The Lines. A search bar is located on the right. Below the navigation is a 'MARKET STATS' section showing the Nifty index at ₹238.85 with a daily change of -1.63 (-0.68%). To the right of the market stats is a 'START SIP' button. The main headline of the article is 'A visit to Spain will leave you spoilt for choice. Here's how to make the most of it'. Below the headline is a sub-headline 'ET CONTRIBUTORS | Dec 28, 2017, 9:33 PM IST' and social media sharing icons for Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, and WhatsApp. A large image of a Spanish city square with a fountain and historic buildings is featured. The author's name 'By Shikhar Aggarwal' is displayed. The article text begins with 'Millions of people across the globe travel to gather experiences and make memories for life. Indians too are not leaving any stone unturned to catch a glimpse of the world. This frequent travel ideology and knack to go out and explore is one of the biggest contributors to the travel and tourism industry. It is predicted to grow to a whopping 50 million in numbers by 2020, as reported by the UNWTO (United Nations World Tourism Organisation). Tourists in the modern era come in categories like vacationers, trekkers, sports enthusiasts, rejuvenation tours, honeymooners, and medical tourists (those seeking medical diagnosis for a variety of health issues). India's medical tourism has boosted the industry and the nation's economy, and it is predicted to grow to USD 9 billion by 2020; it is currently pegged at USD 3 billion. This sector accounts for major developments across numerous sectors, catering to a massive pool of employment opportunities and generating foreign exchange. Travel gives people the opportunity to discover new cultures and lifestyles and exposes