Public Advisory

In simplification and rationalization of the visa regime, the Government of India has decided to revise the Business and Tourist Visa validity period to five years. Hence, all applicants of Business and Tourist Visas will be issued visas with five years validity on regular basis. Please note that enrolment of biometrics and interview would be essential for issuing such long-tem visas.

The Government of India has also introduced three new visa types i.e. Intern Visa, Film Visa and Missionary Visa for applicants going for these purposes to India.

Government has revised visa fee structures for various visa types for many nationalities.

The Embassy would like to advise all the applicants to take note of the revisions and additions and apply accordingly.

The Embassy of India wishes you a pleasant stay in India.
